Foreign Relations

WASHINGTON Nov 23 Our government is satisfied with Minister [illegible] official conduct so far as he has gone with regard to the settlement of the [illegible] and their [illegible] It is [illegible] reported by cable that Lord Stanley has [illegible] that the [illegible] at Washington [illegible] will be gratifying to many interested parties in this country who have expressed [illegible] that the [illegible] will hold its session here instead of London.

Late and very full information is received from [illegible] Ayres relative to the difficulty between Minister Washburne and the Paraguayan government. As the facts become known the Brazilian [illegible] has ceased its attacks upon Washburne. Minister Webb defends him declaring that all the [illegible] justify his course. A letter from Bliss is also published, in which he bears testimony to the unswerving constancy with which Washburne maintained the rights of the legation. A letter from Washburne himself is received, dated Oct 13th, in which he says "When you consider that the men for whom I was fighting were clever, educated men, and that when they left it was like going to the garrote, and that towards the last it appeared no exception would be made in my favor, that I should probably be put to death by torture that my wife and children would be sent on foot to the mountains to die of want or exposure you may judge something of our last two months in Paraguay, and though we escaped never did persons quit a country with heavier hearts. We felt that all our friends and all who had shown us any particular kindness would for that reason be put to death or torture by Lopez. His plan is that of vicarious punishment. If he cannot vent his rage on the person in his power his plan is to confiscate the property of his relations and reduce them to beggary and subject them to torture. Powerless at last to serve any human being my residence surrounded by police and spies no person, foreign or native daring to visit us you will understand how we dared think of all the friends we left behind us as the victims of revenge and cowardice, of the blood thirsty tyrant Lopez who is made furious with disappointment and is conscious that his cause is lost. As his career has been but a series of infamies he seems intent on destroying the witnesses and blotting out its memories. Reports say he is the greatest coward and it was only through fear he let me go. When Capt Kirkland, of the Wasp in response to his threat that he intended to hold me told him if he dared touch me our government would have his head if it had to hunt through all Christendom he concluded to let me depart. As for his conduct, as you will perceive I denounce him as the common enemy of the human race and Paraguay as outside the pale of civilized nations. I am remaining here to see what can be done to save persons seized by Lopez. No effort of mine has been or will be spared to rescue the unfortunate men who were torn from me under circumstances of such peculiar atrocity."

Washburne says further "I did all that was in my power to do. My house was crowded with fugitives. I shared with them in all I had and all the horrors of the situation. All parted from me with the deepest feelings of gratitude. If the steamer Wasp had been at Ascension when Bliss and Masterman were seized it is certain that Capt Kirkland would have opened on the town, but Lopez had kept her below the fortifications, a league below Ascension, in order to have him at a disadvantage. Of course on the street with his wife and child, he (Washburne) could offer no resistance to the outrage upon his flag. His deputed powers had been surrendered. He was without protection and could do nothing. To have surrendered himself and accompanied his companions into captivity instead of hastening to the port where he could communicate with his government and do all in his power to rescue his unfortunate friends from the clutches of a wild beast would have subjected him to censure."

Washburne's letter concludes as follows "I spared no effort to have the most prompt and energetic measures taken to vindicate the insulted majesty of our nation. I have the satisfaction of knowing that my course is approved by all good men. I am now warmly defended. I have been in a position of great embarrassment and peril but have endeavored faithfully to discharge every duty with fidelity to my country, and in obedience to the dictates of common humanity."

The Railroad War

NEW YORK Nov 23—The Tribune gives a statement in addition to the petition of August Belmont before the Judge, of which the following is the material portion. That by the closing of the books of the company sixty days before the election instead of thirty days as usual and by excluding any stockholder from voting by proxy and by other fraudulent devices said Gould, Fisk and Lane succeeded at the regular annual election October 13th, in continuing in and perfecting their control of the company and are now wasting and misappropriating its funds and causing the company to a forfeiture of its charter. Said Gould Fisk and Lane prior to the election in 1868 issued unlawfully three million additional stock. Since that they have issued three million dollars more. The common stock of the company now exceeds sixty million dollars, and its value has fallen from eighty dollars per share down to thirty five dollars. Said increase of stock has all been fraudulently issued and the proceeds thereof are controlled by Gould and Fisk, amounting to about sixteen millions of dollars all of which, instead of being deposited to the credit of the company or standing in its name, is individual stock in the names and possession of said Fisk and Gould, that said Gould and Fisk are using the resources of said company in dangerous and fraudulent speculations in said company in various properties and are now contracting for leases and other purchases on all of which said Gould, Fisk and Lane have received private bonuses in fraud of the company amounting to fifteen millions of dollars to their own use. On these facts Justice Sutherland granted an injunction and order to show cause as prayed for.

The case of McIntosh vs the Erie Company came up today before Justice Sutherland. After considerable argument a decision was given vacating the orders issued by Judge Barnard, which appointed Jay Gould Receiver.

Many petitions in bankruptcy are pressing in view of the anticipated expiration by the first of January of the voluntary clause in the bankrupt law.

Belmont filed his answer to the complaint of Charles McIntosh in the Erie matter, yesterday. He denies that the road is not managed for the interest of the stockholders, charges that Gould, Fisk and other directors are combining to use its funds and property in private speculations with the object to defraud and obstruct legal remedies by the stockholders whereupon he prays that all orders in this direction be set aside and the complaint dismissed with costs.

Kelly who was nominated as the candidate of the Union Democrats for Mayor of this city and R. J. Lawrence as candidate for corporation counsel have both declined, and the Executive Committee of that party have decided to tender the mayoralty to Judge Daly.

Rev Henry Ward Beecher preached a sermon last night on the "Error of Stock Gambling." After mildly alluding to the prevailing desire of men to grasp riches by all means fair or foul the reverend gentleman forcibly dilated upon the present system of gambling in Wall street passing severe strictures on the speculators and contending that if the course of such speculators was not put an end to the most terrible consequences must ensue. He drew a touching picture of the thousands of honest men who are tempted by the speculations of gold now wandering about as helpless beggars through that great pandemonium of swindling and ruin Wall street which was the very sink of iniquity and hot bed of corruption ruin and desolation.

NEW YORK Nov 23—A Panama letter says an American recently arrived there from California named H. V. Clinton under arrest for swindling several parties by means of false letters of credit on Duncan Sherman & Co.

New York Matters

NEW YORK Nov 24—The [illegible] fire in the Trinity building is estimated at $300 000. Heath & Co lithographers occupied the top floor [illegible] [illegible] lithographic stones worth $60 000. Their press and 30 000 000 copies of Frank Leslie's Monthly colored fashion plates were also destroyed. Their insurance is $50,000. The building was owned by the Trinity Church Corporation and was fully insured.

Henry B Whipple a citizen of New Jersey yesterday professed a bill of complaint before Judge Blatchford, in the United States Court asking an injunction against the [illegible] of the issue of a hundred thousand shares of Erie stock in exchange for convertible bonds. It should be adjudged illegal the company will be compelled to make good to the [illegible] there. For Meanwhile [illegible] placed on the company [illegible] the property and a receiver [illegible] appointed. Judge Blatchford [illegible] and appointed James [illegible] as receiver.

Two new suits have been begun by the Erie company [illegible] Richard Schell Daniel Drew and Frank Work in the first complaint claim a million dollars against the defendants for hampering them in the course of their business by means of suits last Spring and three recently begun in the other damages to the extent of $495 000 are claimed for alleged corrupt practice of defendants while directors in June last, the said amount having been paid out of the funds of the company by Eldridge Drew and Thompson Gould, who alleges that offers have been made to the agents of the company to settle the recent Belmont suit of the company, would pay them a large sum of money. Judge Barnard to day issued an order vacating the orders granted by Judge Sutherland, consequently Judge Sutherland issued an order requiring defendants to show cause why the order of Judge Barnard should not be vacated. It will be argued to morrow. Fiske and Gould are entrenched in the Erie railroad depot at the foot of Chambers street. No person is permitted to approach who cannot prove himself a friend and brother and even then there are more keys to turn and bolts to unbar than at the tombs. There are some deputy sheriffs inside of the building, for what business they refuse to tell.

HAVANA, Nov 23—Captain General Lersundi to day received 6 000 volunteers and the whole fire department of the city, the members of which have been armed and drilled. They made a very fine appearance. This force, united with the regular troops, constitutes an army of about 12,000 disciplined men.

The Gazette to day publishes a manifesto of the provisional government at Madrid, making liberal reforms in the government of the island. It has been transmitted by telegraph, railroad and other channels, to all the towns of the interior. In general opinion the circulation of this document in the disturbed districts will prove a powerful auxiliary in putting an end to the revolution.

Late advices from Curracoa represent the country generally quiet. The citizens everywhere desired peace and were disposed to acquiesce in the existing government. Congress meets January 15th, when the new President will be inaugurated.

Great Land Slide

PORTLAND, Me., Nov 23—A dispatch from Westbrook states that a land slide took place at five o'clock this morning, just below the Cumberland paper mills, which comprised about forty acres in area. It completely filled up the channel of the river, and the water rose to within three feet of the top of the dam. The lower story of the mill is submerged. One hundred hands are thrown out of employment by the suspension of the Cumberland paper mills at Westport. The loss by the land slide is stated at a hundred thousand dollars.

NEW YORK Nov. 23—Nothing has been received by cable since early on Sunday morning. The line is supposed to be broken at Newfoundland.

NEW ORLEANS Nov 23—News copied from the Brownsville Ranchero dated 12th inst., says letters from Monterey are received of the previous night. They state that Escobedo had gone from Tampico to Victoria to purchase material for commencing in Tamaulipas, a campaign jointly with the troops of Matamoras. He was surprised by the entire force of Vargas at Hacienda de Almos. Escobedo was defeated barely escaping with a few of his staff to Monterey. Escobedo's forces fought badly and before the fight was over hurrahed for Vargas and Canales and finally declared in favor of the rebels. Escobedo attempted to collect a force at Monterey but failed, the soldiers refusing to march without being paid and afterwards openly refused to fight against their Tamaulipas brethren. Escobedo, seeing this complicated state of affairs sent in his resignation declaring himself incapable of combatting and putting down the revolution. The force at Victoria under Lopez and Montinez are becoming demoralized and have disbanded themselves a large portion joining Vargas. It is believed by this time that Tampico has pronounced for him, as well as other States and that even the entire State will be in the hands of Vargas.

HAVANA, Nov 23—The arrival from Vera Cruz brings the following intelligence. The resignation of Gen Mejia Minister of War is confirmed. He is about to be tried for unauthorized expenditure of the public moneys. His conviction is considered certain. Gens Diaz Alatove and Berrezabal were spoken of as prominent candidates for the office. The report that an insurrection had been organized at Sierra Peubla by Mendes and Negrete proves unfounded.

Heavy inundations in many portions of the country, causing great loss of property, are reported. The demand of Gen Conto to be tried by a military court for the alleged assassination of Gen Patoni has been refused.

Speaking of the virulence of the small-pox in San Francisco the Oakland News says:

A score or more a week are carried away, and many times that number are attacked with the disease who if recovering are for a lifetime marked with its terrible effects. It is said that vaccination nor even once having the malady is a sure preventive for it. Those who have recovered from it once have been attacked again and in one instance a death occurred from the second attack. A terrible cruelty equivalent almost to execution, attends those who are discovered as having the disease. They are dragged off to the pest-house unless they have powerful friends to protect them and then says Dr Rowell two out of five die. This is a most horrible revelation and disgraceful both to the medical fraternity and the authorities of the city. Can these do nothing to suppress the ravages of the deadly malady?

One very cold night a jolly old fellow, who had been drinking too freely at a tavern, started for home in a gig and on the way was upset and left by the side of the road. Some persons, passing a short time after discovered him, holding his feet up to the moon, and ejaculating to some invisible person, "Pile on the wood; it's a miserable cold fire."

The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 26, 1868.

National Thanksgiving Proclamation.

In the year which is now drawing to its end the art, the skill, and the labor of the people of the United States have been employed with greater diligence and vigor and on broader fields than ever before, and the fruits of the earth have been gathered into the granary and the storehouse in marvelous abundance. Our highways have been lengthened and new and prolific regions have been occupied. We are permitted to hope that long, protracted political and sectional dissensions are, at no distant day, to give place to returning harmony and fraternal affection throughout the Republic. Many foreign States have entered into liberal agreements with us, while nations far off, and which heretofore have been unsocial and exclusive, have become our friends. The annual period of rest which we have reached in health and tranquility, and which is crowned with so many blessings, is by universal consent, a convenient and suitable one for cultivating personal piety and practicing public devotion.

I, therefore, recommend that Thursday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, be set apart and observed by all the people of the United States as a day of public praise, thanksgiving and praise to the Almighty Creator and Divine Ruler of the universe, by whose ever watchful, merciful and gracious providence alone, States and nations, no less than families and individual men, do move, and live, and have their being.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this twelfth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and of the independence of the United States the ninety third.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

By the President:
WM. H. SEWARD, Sec'y of State.

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF OREGON.

WHEREAS, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States of America, has appointed and set apart Thursday, the 26th day of November, A. D., 1868, as a day of public thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God for his continued goodness to us:

Now, therefore, I, George L. Woods, Governor of the State of Oregon, do by this, my proclamation, call upon all the people in the State to properly observe said day.

The Lord is our benefactor;
He gave us our liberties;
He preserved us as a nation;
He has given us peace.

"Let all the people bow down before his throne and praise His holy name," and unite in swelling the chorus of a nation's song of gratitude. It is our heart's best sacrifice—the noblest tribute we can bring.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the State of Oregon to be affixed. Done at Salem this, the 16th day of November, A. D., 1868. GEO. L. WOODS,
Governor of Oregon,

By the Governor,
SAMUEL E. MAY, Secretary of State.

Thanksgiving.

With a spontaneity of genuine feeling, all men and women of every creed may hail the coming of Thanksgiving Day with a hearty welcome. In this custom there is no room for sectarianism. Thanksgiving has become thoroughly [illegible] nationalized. It has lost, or rather it has outgrown, from the very power of expansion that belonged to it at first,—as the acorn contains the oak—the local character it had when it was first known in America. From being a day of praise among a few self-exiled men in New England it has ascended to the dignity of a festal day of a great people occupying a territory alike numerous and various, and who feel within themselves the [illegible] to [illegible] to an extent that baffles even the powers of the imagination. From being observed on a short and narrow strip of the Atlantic's shore, this institution has become a holiday throughout a continent, further [illegible] another proof that there is no limit to the expansion of what is called by eminence, America, as if our country had taken the name of the continent by way of preparation for taking the continent itself.

Under the old political regime Thanksgiving made its way steadily over most of the American Republic, though objected to by some persons of the Southern school of politics, partly because of its New England origin, which led them to class it with codfish and clocks, and partly because there was no allusion to it in the Resolutions of '98 or in the writings of Jefferson. But Thanksgiving was conquering even Southern prejudice when the civil war came and made it a national festival at once. Previously it had depended for its extension mainly on the feelings of Governors of States; but President Lincoln gave it a national character, and President Johnson in this one matter at least has followed the example of his good and eminent predecessor. Thanksgiving is now therefore established as a national institution and we may expect that it will be maintained.

We have reasons for giving thanks now, as we have at all times. The country has been free from most of those sweeping visitations that inflict sudden and lasting distress on myriads of human beings. In few other years has the earth yielded more liberally to our people than she has in this, pouring forth lavishly rich treasures from her bounteous bosom. There have been some political disorders attended in a few cases by riot and bloodshed, but no actual war either among our own people or with foreign powers. And there is now every prospect that these political disorders which have kept our people in commotion for a long time will speedily cease. The election of General Grant is an assurance of peace, and it is therefore an event to be profoundly thankful for.

Nothing is more calculated to remind us of the rapid flight of time and the speed with which we are all "marching on" to our final destiny, than the recurrence of those festal days which are set apart by custom, and on which we are permitted to lay aside our various instruments of labor, and for a few brief hours make a practical protest against that sentence to hard labor to which in Adam, as the representative of our race, we were all made subject. It seems but yesterday since we were enjoying the Thanksgiving of 1867. A few more such swift passages of years and others will be in our places, repeating our follies, and not improbably placing to our discredit whatever of evil may mark their brief life's day—a course in which they will be justified if we fail to do our duty to God and to man. For as some of the evils that we feel are clearly traceable to ancestral errors, so will this generation, if it err, bequeath to the next generation ills that may prove destructive in their effects. Men are connected by indissoluble links, the living with the departed, the dead with the unborn.

RAILROAD COMPROMISE.—The Salt Lake Reporter, of the 15th inst., says that a compromise has been effected between the Union Pacific Railroad and the Central Pacific Railroad Companies, in regard to the limit of their grading now under contract between Promontory Point and Humboldt Wells. The companies have agreed to grade only to Monument Point. But it is not to be considered the terminus of either road. The company reaching there first has the privilege to extend their road beyond the Point, no matter whether it be the Central coming East or the Union going West. The grading is to be pushed forward the same as heretofore, but only for one road. This is about the sum and substance of the compromise.

DATES TO NOVEMBER 25.

Relations with Great Britain.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The new postal arrangements with Great Britain was to-day signed by the President. It takes effect January 15th.

Secretary Seward authorizes the following relative to Reverdy Johnson's negotiations on the Alabama claims to correct irresponsible statements: Our Minister only reports progress in his late dispatches to the state department. The question of the peaceful adjustment of the Alabama claims is approaching settlement and all things look favorable, but there has been no definite conclusion reached upon any important point up to this time. Johnson and Lord Stanley have not even settled so far the agreement on the Protocol. There has been a good deal of correspondence between our Minister and the British Foreign Secretary. A very friendly feeling pervades all this correspondence, but the only important fact yet developed is that there is a hope for an amicable settlement. It will not be wise for the papers of this country to rely upon and publish all the rumors which leak out from the British foreign office and are sent abroad through the columns of the London journals, as truth. Mr Johnson has not been authorized from the State Department to vary in any particular from the instructions given him on the eve of his departure as to the duties of his office at the court of Her Majesty.

The Trade with China.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—A meeting of leading citizens and business men was held last night, to take measures in reference to the opening of trade with China and the eastern countries and over the Pacific coast. Lieut. Governor Bross, in his speech gave interesting statistics, showing the advantages to trade through San Francisco, and the difference in favor of this route between London and China. Other gentlemen spoke in the same strain. The indications are that Chicago merchants would be prompt in opening trade with the Oriental Empire.

Active preparations are being made for a great Soldiers' Reunion here, on the 15th day of December. General Sherman will deliver the address of freedom. Generals Thomas, Sheridan, Slocum, Schofield and others intend being present on that occasion.

Miscellaneous.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 25.—At the silver wedding of John B. Gough, last night, $3,000 worth of silver presents were displayed from western friends.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Sir John Young, the new Governor of Canada, and several other official arrived yesterday.

The ship Lawrence, from San Francisco to New York, was burned at sea, September 22d. The captain and the crew were saved and brought here by the ship Valparaiso.

The Erie railroad office on West street was closed yesterday. The clerk told all visitors that business was suspended. The transfer office was open.

HAVANA, Nov. 25.—The general information received is that the revolution will soon be ended. Many are making overtures to the government.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Buenos Ayres letters report that President Sarmiento is desirous of having command of the army given to some distinguished United States general.

Mr. Gladstone, in a pamphlet entitled "A Chapter of Autobiography," just published, defines and defends the changes of opinion on the subject of the church establishment. All the Liberal journals review the book, but apparently copies were not furnished to the Conservative press, as they are silent about it. The Times regards the publication as a voluntary hazardous confession.

The total election returns now stated are, 363 Liberals and 246 Conservatives. Gladstone and his colleague, Greenfield, were both defeated in south-west Lancashire. The Pall Mall Gazette urges the Alabama claims commission to sit alternately in London and Washington for the convenience of both British and American claimants.

The French government continues the prosecution of the press with unremitting severity. The editors of the Temps, Tribune, Journal de Paris, Reveille and Lavorniere have been summoned to appear before the civil tribunal on Friday next to answer charges for promoting a subscription for the Bondine monument.

DUBLIN, Nov. 24.—The corporate authorities of this city have petitioned the Government for the pardon of the Fenian convicts.

MADRID, Nov. 24.—The Provisional Government has promulgated a decree rearranging the schedule of imports and making a reduction in many articles—the changes to go into effect in January. The reductions in the tariff made by the decree of the act are refused. The payment of the semi-annual interest on the public debt is provided for.

It is announced officially, that the elections of Delegates to the Constitutional Cortes will take place December 15th. The Cortez meets on the 1st of January.

Large public meetings have been held in Barcelona by the Monarchists and Republican parties. Processions with bands paraded the streets and other demonstrations were made; but all has been peaceable. The Monarchists are largely in the ascendant, though the Republicans seem to be gaining. All parties in Madrid are preparing to make similar demonstrations. There is every indication for a lively canvass.

A transport with a cargo of war stores sailed from Cadiz for Havana, on the 20th. The fleet with the troops will sail December 2d.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—A rumor was circulated that Joseph Mazzina, the great Republican leader, died on Friday in Switzerland, but later reports contradict this.

All the great powers have united in condemning the course of Wallachia as false to the obligations of her treaties.

The London Globe has an editorial on the reception of the Chinese embassy. It attaches great importance to the mission of Mr. Burlingame. Describing its object, it says America is in favor of the protective system, while England desires uninterrupted intercourse. The interests of China and Great Britain are identical. If there is the smallest chance of advantage accruing from the proposed treaty let us ratify it without the least possible delay.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—The younger members of the Democratic party are preparing to organize upon the basis of the Tammany party in New York, ruling out from the leadership the old fossils who are not alive to present issues.

Last night four of the Potrero rioters were arrested and will be examined on Friday. The old fight of the authorities against dance houses and waiter girls appears likely to be re-opened by a decision of Judge Provines to-day. The law reads as follows—"and when women and girls are employed to wait or attend in any manner between twelve o'clock at night and daylight in the morning." Judge Provines has decided that the words "attend in any manner," does not preclude women being employed to sing or play in saloons where liquor is sold and which do not close at twelve o'clock. Measures are to be taken to bring the case before Judge McKinstry.

The steamer Henry Chauncey sailed from New York, November 24th, with nine hundred passengers and 1,500 tons of freight, including 1,440 firkins butter.

W. C. Ralston was to-day elected a member of the Board of Regents of the State University, in place of ex-Governor Low, resigned.

Private telegrams received to-day report the ship Lawrence hence for New York, burned at sea on the 22d of September. The crew were saved and taken to New York on the ship Valparaiso, also hence. The Lawrence was loaded in Moore & Co.'s line. Her cargo consisted of 870 centals barley, 1300 bbls flour, 2707 hides, 16 tons mustard seed, 42,000 gallons whale oil, 500 flasks quicksilver, 488 tons wheat, 15,000 gallons wine and 360,000 pounds wools. The cargo was fully insured in the local companies of this city

To-morrow being Thanksgiving Day, business will be generally suspended. There will be no meeting of the stock Board.

Mining stocks continue active, though closing prices this morning generally show a lower range.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

ALBANY, No. 25.—At ten o'clock last evening a fire broke out in the residence of Wm Calwell, in this city, and before sufficient help arrived the building was too far gone to save it. Supposed to be accidental. Part of the goods saved. Understand no insurance.

PUGET SOUND.

[From the Olympia Transcript, Nov. 21.]

We learn that an employee of the telegraph company, while repairing the line between Swinomish and Whatcom, recently discovered a large prairie of rich land, estimated to contain 10,000 acres, between those places and but a short distance eastward of the old trail. The existence of such a fine body of land has never been known before, as that part of the country was supposed to be covered with a dense forest.

That horrible old nuisance, the block house, is to be torn down at last. The town trustees have ordered the marshal to begin the work on next Monday morning, and requests all the citizens to lend a hand in the good work.

Mr. F. M. Stocking informs us that the new mill at Cedarville, Chehalis county, was burned down a few days ago, having caught fire from a pile of burning slabs, consuming the mill and all its contents. The loss is presumed to be over $2,000. The mill belonged to the Armstrong estate, and was rented to Mr. W. B. D. Newman, who was engaged in cutting lumber for the Indian Department. The lumber yard was uninjured.

In that highly Democratic county of Pierce, at the last term of the District Court, held in the town of Steilacoom, a colored juryman was empanneled and served creditably, much to the embarrassment of some of the legal fraternity. As Captain Enoch O. Adams would say, "the world moves."

There is such a perfect mania at this time for hunting the railroad terminus, that we propose to give those more immediately interested a little sound advice about how to go to work to secure the terminus. In the first place, invest a little capital, say half a million or so, in building up a sprightly little town; then put in operation a first class lumbering establishment, and just as soon as you get it to running begin to build a railroad from your town, in the direction of the Columbia river, and continue to build until you meet Ben Holliday and his road. If you don't complete more than twenty or thirty miles of road before you meet the other, you will then be able to coalesce with that road by simply deeding your road away—easy done—and then you have the terminus, don't you see? We advise several of the seekers to try it, it won't cost much.

STATE ITEMS.

The Unionist of Tuesday says: Yesterday morning as Sheriff Smith, of Polk county, was preparing for his departure, with Charles Sutton, for the Penitentiary, a most unfortunate accident happened, as the prisoner was being helped into the wagon. A shot gun laying in the wagon and loaded with buckshot, was accidently discharged, the contents taking effect in the persons of Messrs. Smith, a brother of the Sheriff, and Glaze. Smith was stuck in several places, one shot—the most dangerous—hitting him in the abdomen. The wounds of the other gentleman are said not to be so severe as those of Mr. Smith. It is feared that the wound of Mr. Smith will prove fatal.

The grading on the line of the railroad between Portland and Salem, will soon be completed, says the Unionist, probably by the first of December if no bad weather intervenes. The energy with which the work is being prosecuted can be gathered from the fact that the hands at work on French Prairie graded one mile and a quarter on Friday and Saturday; the hands at work on Mill Creek Prairie, about ten miles toward Jefferson, graded a mile. The ground is now in excellent condition for work. This fast work operated rather against a heavy land owner on French Prairie, who intended to lay an injunction on the work through his premises, but when coming to view progress, to learn when to enjoin, found that the graders had graded the track through his lands and moved a mile on the other side.

Late News Brevities.

New England gives a Republican majority of 148,500.

The Democrats of Winterset, Iowa, have elected a negro Justice of the Peace. It is their conception of a joke.

Who would have thought it? Kentucky gave Grant a vote of 45,000, a Republican gain of over 20,000. This will give Nasby the finishing stroke.

Mr. John Quincy Adams was a candidate for Representative from Quincy, as well as for Governor of Massachusetts, and was defeated in both instances.

The Louisville Courier and the Louisville Journal have been consolidated, the new paper to be called the Courier and Journal. They found separate enterprise too costly.

It is reported that the old Bank of North Carolina is about to go into bankruptcy. Should it do so the State will lose $500,000 of its literary fund, and the University of North Carolina $125,000. Other funds, the property of widows, orphans, and charities, will also be lost. The bank was, at the close of the war, in a better condition than any other in the State.

The World has a leading editorial, with tabular statements, showing that if every citizen, white and black, had voted at the late election, Seymour would have received nearly half a million more votes than Grant, and informs the Democratic representatives in Congress that they thus represent a majority of the people of the United States, and should act accordingly. Superlative nonsense.

GOOD BOY.—The nephew of Thaddeus Stevens, who was to have $100,000 of the Great Commoner's wealth if he abstained ten years from liquor and tobacco, or would be obliged to surrender it to the orphans of the soldiers if he indulged, says he will not rob the poor orphans.

CHARITY.—A large class of people professing to be virtuous, on many occasions forget that to be charitable to a fellow being is the least virtue a person can possess. It is not always by giving money to the poor or assisting the afflicted that a person can only show their charity. A good advice is often better than money; for instance. Meeting a person who wishes to purchase a common or fine suit of clothes or any other article in the Clothing or Dry Goods line, is it not a charitable act toward that person to recommend them to go to Kohn & Fishel, sure being certain that at that House they can purchase at the lowest rates and receive good goods, and where the most particular can be satisfied?

THANKSGIVING.—To-day is to be observed throughout the United States as a day of thanksgiving. [illegible] the reason for such an observance is that it has long been the custom of the people of the United States to set [illegible] large about this [illegible] of the year—in November [illegible] Thursday. Particularly, each has his own reasons, and there are too many of these for [illegible] the [illegible]. Andrew Johnson, however, puts the [illegible] observance on high moral grounds"—he [illegible] "In the year which is now drawing to its end, the art, the skill and the labor of the United States have been employed with great diligence and vigor, and on broader fields than ever before, and the fruits of the earth have been gathered into the granary and the storehouse in marvelous abundance. Our highways have been lengthened, and new and prolific regions have been occupied. We are permitted to hope that long protracted political and sectional dissensions are, at no distant day, to give place to returning harmony and fraternal affection throughout the Republic. Many foreign States have entered into liberal agreements with us, while nations which are far off and which, heretofore, have been unsocial and exclusive, have become our friends. The annual period of rest which we have reached in health and tranquility and which is crowned with so many blessings, is, by universal consent, a convenient and suitable one for cultivating personal piety and practicing public devotion." [illegible] Woods proclaims thanksgiving, because "The Lord is our benefactor; He gave us our liberties; He preserved us as a nation, He has given us peace."

IMPROVEMENT TO THE CITY JAIL.—The city authorities after being soundly and justly rapped over the knuckles on account of the disgraceful condition of the city jail have concluded to reform the "nuisance." A good tin roof is to be put on to keep the institution dry, and a stove has been put inside to keep it warm. It is [illegible], therefore, that it will not be necessary for the next Grand Jury to [illegible] it as a nuisance that [illegible] to be abated at once.

WEATHER EAST OF THE MOUNTAINS.—The Walla Walla Statesman of the 20th, says: For over a week the weather in this valley has been unusually cold for the season of the year. Water in ponds is covered with ice [illegible] and the whole face of nature wears a [illegible].

PERSONAL.—[illegible] Woods and Messrs. Moores, McP[illegible] and other Senators, arrived down yesterday of the first [illegible] on business connected with the East Side Railroad.

SAILED.—The steamship Active, Scholl, Commander, sailed from Portland for Victoria, yesterday morning.

A Wonderful Sea Monster Killed

Harper s Weekly of October contains a picture of a wonderful sea monster recently killed near Eastport, Me The Bangor Whig gives the following detailed description of it

The strange animal recently captured near Eastport, meagre reports of which had reached us, arrived in this city a few days ago and has been on exhibition during which it has been visited by our citizens all of whom have expressed their wonder as well at the remarkable size of this monster as its anamolous character This animal part beast and part fish is over thirty feet in length and girts twenty-one feet It has one enormous dorsal fin, two side belly fins and a broad shark like tail. About one third of its length from its tail, in connection with small fins it has two huge legs, terminating in web feet Its mouth measures a line five or six feet in length, the whole extent of which is set with innumerable small teeth, very much resembling in size and shape the kernel of a species of sharp pointed pop corn It has a series of gills which overlay each other like the flounces once in style in ladies dresses Its immense body which was estimated to have weighed when captured eleven tons, had no framework of bones its most solid portions consisting of cartilage incapable of preservation Its skin is dark and tough, like that of the elephant and rhinoceros

There is no record of his species and to none is it a greater wonder than to naturalists whose attention is being drawing to it Among others who have had the opportunity of seeing it is Professor Baird, of the Smithsonian Institute at Washington, who is as yet unable to place it in the known lists of the animal kingdom It is indeed a veritable wonder calculated to excite popular curiosity, and to invite the researches of the scientific

At various times during the past fifteen years a strange monster believed to be a huge serpent, has been reported seen in Lake Utopia in New Brunswick just across the State line, but as these reports in each instance rested upon the testimony of but one or two individuals, they were generally discredited Latterly, however, the reports and the number of witnesses had so increased as to take the story out of the realm of fiction On Sunday, August 3d, the monster was discovered near the shore on the west side of Fairy Island, where Passamaquoddy Bay is connected with Lake Utopia, by a marsh a quarter of a mile long. Being attacked by mystery, it struck for the marsh, and probably for the lake, which was undoubtedly its home, and before being rendered incapable of locomotion, it had worked its way with its fins and legs a number of rods The report of its presence at once spread to the town, attracting a large number to the spot to aid in its destruction It received some seventy musket balls, and although attacked in the forenoon showed signs of life the following day

Thus the northeastern portion of our State, with the assistance of New Brunswick has the honor of producing the nearest approach to a veritable sea serpent, which is destined to make a popular sensation wherever exhibited. It is to be at Portland during the forthcoming State Fair, and is thence bound for Boston New York, and other principal cities

THE PIE BOY WHO BECAME A PRINCE —The first Prince Menschikoff was a pie boy at Moscow, and was delivering things at a noble man s kitchen one day when Czar Peter the Great was expected to dine at the house While waiting about, he overheard the nobleman give special direction for the preparation of a favorite dish of the Czar s and afterward while the cook was absent, the boy saw him place something in a dish which he believed to be poison

As soon as Menschikoff saw the Czar in the street he cried out his rolls more loudly than ever, and began to sing and approach the Czar to make himself seen Peter called to him and asked him some questions, to which he answered so happily that the Prince said, "I will keep thee in my service" Menschikoff accepted the offer with joy At dinner time, without orders he entered the banquet hall, and stood behind Peter When the dish appeared, he bent down and whispered "not to touch it" Peter got up and, with a smiling face, made pretense to take the boy into an adjoining apartment when Menschikoff explained his suspicion

Upon the Czar returning to the table, the boyard again offered the dish, and Peter asked him to sit by his side and partake with him The nobleman colored and said it became not a subject to eat the same as the Emperor who, seeing his embarrassment, took the plate and offered it to a dog, who swallowed all its contents But a few moments after ward it began to run and howl, then staggered, fell and soon expired The boyard was se ..., but next morning was found dead in his bed

Menschikoff had not to sells rolls any longer, the first step to his rapid fortune was made, and his descendants are a most powerful family in Russia to this day

PRESS ON —We find the following sentiment —the key to the future—in a little English periodical

The mystery of Napoleon s career was this, under all difficulties and discouragements to press on It was the problem of all the heroes, it is the rule by which to judge rightly of all wonderful success It should be the motto of all, high and low fortunate and unfortunate so called— press on never despair, never be discouraged however stormy the heavens, however dark the way however great the difficulties, or great the failure ' press on If fortune has played false with thee to-day do thou play true for this to morrow Let the foolishness of yesterday make thee wise to-day If thy affections have been poured out like water into the desert do not sit down and perish of thirst but ' press on'—a beautiful oasis is before thee, and thou mayest reach it if thou wilt If another has been false to thee do not increase the evil by being false to thyself Do not say the world has lost its poetry and its beauty it is not so and even if it be so make thy own poetry and beauty by a brave a true and above all a religious life

INCISIVE —The Democratic Review is exceedingly incisive at times and digs its little teeth in without remorse The following is from that paper

McClellan is one of the poorest creatures that ever buzzed in the sunshine for a few hours a rebel at heart without the blood in the brain to be an open rebel a vain coward whose imbecility has cost us the lives of many thousand brave men but pitiful as his condition is, it is too much that the Examiner should praise him There should be some measure even in retribution and wretched as he is McClellan should not be so cruelly punished

The latest theatrical sensation in London is produced by running a pack of fox hounds in full cry across the stage

Mr Zechariah Wilson Portland, Oregon writes;

It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the stormy ordeal of public experiments Murray s Improved Magic Oil has stood the test of time and has not been found wanting The astonishing efficacy that I experienced—its curing me of Chronic Rheumatism and Lumbago of long standing out ... Dr Murray s Premium Lung and Liver Balsam and Improved Magic Oil to a high rank in the list of remedies for Rheumatism Lumbago, Ear-ache Distressing ...

John English of Howell Prairie Marion county Oregon writes

I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities accompanied with a severe cough for two months so that I had to use ... meanwhile trying all remedies in common use Your Magic Oil and Balsam gave me instant relief and I was able to walk in four days without crutches I have felt any rheumatism since I have seen your family medicines used with excellent success I have no hesitancy saying it is the best preparation for family use ever tried for those complaints I am now on my way to ... America after residing in Oregon twenty years I must now have two dozens Balsam and two dozen of your Magic Oil dollar bottles as I am ... they are the best remedies in Oregon and I would not be without them ... and when this package of medicines is exhausted I will send to your office in Portland for a fresh supply J ENGLISH

Eighteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined As a Journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles it at the same time pays special attention to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST but to every thing of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,

AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS

OF

Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana,

TELEGRAMS FROM

are published as full as in the California journals and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who having lived in this State are able to write on Eastern affairs both politically and commercially from an Oregon stand point

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

Commercial Reports

are furnished every week giving the Financial, Dry Goods Hardware and General Market Reports of Portland and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State

In every department it will be as it has been the foremost in the State in the field of journalism Being firmly established, it will go forward with confidence making new plans for improvement and usefulness and hopes to gain increased circulation and support

The most important National Election ever held in the United States is now approaching The dissemination of reliable political information among the people is a matter of the highest consequence The Republic must not go back to the so-called Democratic interpretation of the powers of the Government to the great cause which precipitated the late conflict on the country The principles which were upheld on the battle-field must be sustained at the ballot box and the OREGONIAN will labor with assiduity to secure that end

Dr Gibbon s Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhoea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering from a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system To look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect, loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue foetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained at once apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating his disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicine promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn-to certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths shoemakers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patient's letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure

Address DR J F GIBBON 616 Kearney street corner Commercial San Francisco Post Office Box 252

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER
